

BARTR Customer Agreement

Effective Date: September 7, 2025

This Agreement governs your use of the BARTR app, operated by The BARTR (“we,” “us,” “our”). By creating an account or using BARTR, you agree to these terms. If you do not agree, do not use BARTR.

1. Eligibility

You must be at least 18 years old (or the age of majority in your jurisdiction) and provide accurate, up-to-date account information.

2. Role of BARTR

BARTR provides a platform for users to connect and exchange verified skills and services. We are not a party to transactions between users. Apple Inc. and Google LLC are not involved in any BARTR transactions, obligations, or disputes.

3. User Responsibilities

- You are responsible for your conduct and compliance with applicable laws.
- You may not use BARTR for unlawful, fraudulent, or harmful purposes.
- You are responsible for the accuracy of all information you provide, including service descriptions and payments.

4. Transactions

Payments are processed securely by Stripe. By using BARTR, you agree to Stripe’s Services Agreement and Privacy Policy. Users set their own exchange terms and are solely responsible for fulfillment.

5. Fees

BARTR may charge service or transaction fees, when users default on agreements, disclosed before completion of each transaction.

6. Disputes Between Users

Users must resolve disputes directly. BARTR does not provide refunds, mediation, or guarantees of performance.

7. Termination

We may suspend or terminate accounts for violations of this Agreement or misuse of BARTR. You may stop using BARTR and request account deletion at any time.

8. Limitation of Liability

BARTR is provided “as is” without warranties. BARTR, its affiliates, and partners are not liable for damages arising from your use of BARTR or transactions between users.

9. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of Delaware, U.S.A., with exclusive jurisdiction in its courts.

10. Acceptance

By creating an account or using BARTR, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agreed to this Agreement.
